sistance Rendered in Advertising

Appreciation of services rendered by local merchants in the matter of church publicity was expressed in the following resolutions drafted last night by the Fairmont Ministerial Association:

"The Ministerial Association of Fairmont wishes to express its appreciation to the following friends and firms for their gracious and generous gifts which made possible a full page announcement of the pre-Easter services in the churches the past few Saturdays in The West Virginian;

"Acme Book Co., the Ahern Co., Barnesville Manufacturing Co., W. R. Crane Drug Co., See Denham, First Co., Fairmont Electric Service Co., Fairmont Wall Plaster Co., Fannus & Co., Fairmont Motor Car Co., Fairmont Mining Machinery Co., Fairmont Trust Co., Fortney Drug Co., J. M. Hartley Son & Co., Home Savings Bank, Hutchinson Coal Co., Helme & Co., Levi B. Harr, Home Laundry, Hall's Hardware Co., Home Furniture Co., Sam Isaman, N. E. Johnson, Jacob Hutchinson Hardware Co., J. R. Lake Grocery Store, Bert S. Leonard & Co., Monongah Glass Co., Martin's Drug Store, Mountain City Drug Co., National Bank of Fairmont, Owens Bottle Co., D. M. Osgood, People's National Bank, J. S. Pople & Sons Co., Ross Furniture Co., Shurtlett & Walton Standard Garage Co., L. Snyder, the Sanitary Market, Tropy Laundry Co., and The West Virginian.

"It was a thoughtful and beautiful deed and we trust that the general public may heed in a special way these announcements and make a special effort to attend the Easter services in the churches next Sunday. We feel these announcements have been helpful and have increased the attendance in the different churches. We thank you all most cordially."

Assistant Attorney Claims
Case Against Girl Wrecked

MORGANTOWN, April 13.—The case of the state against Lenora Lewis, colored, of Jenkins, W. Va., on trial in the Monongalia County Circuit Court here on a murder indictment in connection with the death of her illegitimate child a few hours after his birth, was expected to be given to the jury today.

The state's case was "virtually wrecked," Assistant Prosecutor G. G. Baker told the court, by Judge Lenzell's decision in striking out the testimony of a witness offering an alleged confession offered by the state. The court ruled that the magistrate's testimony dealing with statements made by the Lewis girl immediately after her arrest was improper because the girl had been threatened and offered leniency if she would "tell a straight story."

The confession was not admitted the court said, because if the girl had been of average mentality and had had the advice of counsel, she would have realized the best thing she could do was "to keep her mouth shut."

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

MUNHALL, Pa., April 13.—One child was burned to death and three others were injured here early today when the home of Paul Pintsak was destroyed by fire. Three-year-old James Pintsak was the victim. His brother Paul and sister Margaret suffered burns. Margaret Peraloni of Ironwood, Mich., a visitor at the Pintsak home, suffered slight burns.

WOMAN FOUND GUILTY

Mrs. E. S. Parrish of East Side, who was recently arrested by county officers on a charge of violating the State Prohibition Law, confessed when arraigned before Magistrate J. L. Blocher for trial on the charge yesterday afternoon. Magistrate Blocher sentenced her to serve sixty days in the county jail and to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

Sell Them

Don't keep a miscellaneous collection of discarded things around the house. Don't think that you are thrifty because you keep everything that is not worn out.

Right now, when it's time for the spring cleaning, gather up all the things that you no longer use and sell them. If they are good for anything at all, there is someone, somewhere who can use them.

Make a list right now of the things around the house and then advertise them in the Want Ad Columns. Your whole family will be glad to dispose of such things and it will make your work much easier. Do it today.
